Weeks To Go	Your weekly fundraising advice	The difference your fundraising could make	Total amount raised so far
3 weeks to go	It's time to let your family and friends know why you are taking on The Enormous Elephant Run! Do you foster an orphan? Have you visited our Nursery? Share your story and why fundraising for the elephants means so much to you.	TOP TIP: Ask your friends and family if they will sponsor you per km. If you can get five people to sponsor you just £3 per km, let them know that... £15 could ensure the younger orphans in our care stay warm with a blanket. Haven't set up your fundraising page? Do it now at: enormouselephantrun.com/fundraising-ideas
2 weeks to go	Remember you don't have to use just the internet to raise money. Whether you organise a bake sale or take some old clothes to a car boot, by fundraising face-to-face you can spread awareness and add to your fundraising total at the same time.	TOP TIP: Download our sponsorship form so you can claim Gift Aid on face to face donations. Gift Aid means that you could raise 25p more per £1 donated, making an even bigger difference. With this extra money, did you know that an extra... £55 could fund an Anti-Poaching team for a day, removing snares and arresting poachers
1 week to go	With a week before the run, now's the perfect time to give something up in aid of elephants. Maybe it's chocolate, coffee or something else, ask your friends, family and colleagues to sponsor you. Perhaps pledge to make a small donation yourself each time you're tempted!	TOP TIP: It's your fundraising efforts that enable us to do more to help elephants! If your friends and family haven't sponsored you yet, remind them that even the smallest of donations add up and can make a huge difference.... £200 could feed an orphaned elephant for a week! Share your fundraising page link via email, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram or whatever social media you use!

REMEMBER: You can also share some of the DSWT's most recent stories from social media to help with your fundraising!

Whether it's a rescue story or an update on our field work, you can inspire your friends and family to donate by showing them the difference their support will make to elephant's lives.
